STORY ABOUT US

ESTABLISHED 2014

14

The NTVS or (The Natives) started in 2014. Two Native guys teamed up to start selling t-shirts at Midwest powwows. They knew they had something special when tees would start selling out the first day of an event. From there they kept growing the brand by creating more designs and building a website. They had no idea the brand would explode to become what it is today. Their designs have been worn by many celebrities and famous faces. The brand has also grown a following of over 55,000 followers on Instagram and shipped over 20,000 orders.

The brand has also collaborated with some well known Native artists like: Steven Paul Judd. Steven (aka SPJ) has teamed up with the brand to create over 50 unique designs. More about him later.
